Emergency Information: In an emergency, call 111 for fire, police, and ambulance. Call 105 to report incidents that don't require urgent police assistance. For medical care, please visit Wellington Accident & Urgent Medical Centre at 17 Adelaide Road, Newtown.

Important Information: Your itinerary includes lots of short walks. We recommend taking water with you and at all times, please keep to well-lit areas, cross roads at pedestrian crossings, watch for cars, be aware of your surroundings and observe road safety rules. During your visit you may participate in activities in which there is an option to consume alcoholic beverages. When you choose to consume such beverages, keep in mind that you have a busy itinerary and that consumption of alcohol can affect your ability to do activities safely. If you'd rather not drink alcohol please choose a soft drink alternative.

Welcome to Wellington!

Wellington, New Zealand's capital, is renowned for its rich cultural heritage and natural beauty.

As the country's cultural hub, Wellington boasts world-class museums and galleries, blending Māori traditions with modern urban charm. It's also a paradise for movie enthusiasts, with Wētā Workshop offering behind-the-scenes experiences that captivate fans worldwide.

The city's natural landscapes are equally stunning—encounter native wildlife at Zealandia Te Māra a Tāne, or watch seals along the scenic coastline. Whether you're exploring the cultural treasures at the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa or experiencing traditional Māori waka culture, Wellington offers diverse and enriching experiences.

For this year's TRENZ, we've curated a special Chinese famil, led by your old friend, Angela, specifically designed for Chinese buyers. As a travel agent, this is your chance to discover a destination that seamlessly combines nature and culture, providing your clients with an unforgettable experience.

Welcome to Wellington
Wellington, New Zealand

Nau mai ki Te Upoko o Te Ika a Māui | Welcome to Wellington

Sitting at the heart of New Zealand, and surrounded by hills and a sparkling harbour, Wellington is a compact capital city with a powerful mix of culture, history, nature, and cuisine.

Fuel your visit with strong coffee and indulge in the city's award-winning restaurants, cocktail lounges, and craft beer bars. Discover New Zealand's stories in interactive museums, be inspired in theatres and galleries, and learn moviemaking magic in the heart of Wellington's world-famous film industry. Take a day trip to our neighbouring wine region, experience acclaimed nature experiences, and explore the city's outdoor playground by foot, bike, boat or train.

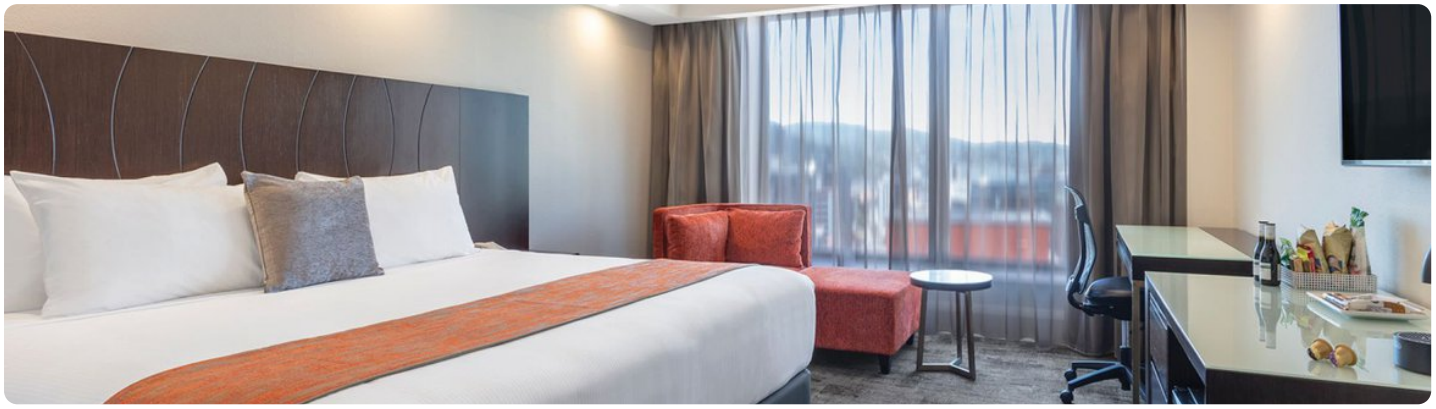

With an international airport just 15 minutes from the city centre, Wellington is an ideal short break destination, as well as a minimum two-night stay as part of any New Zealand holiday.

We hope you enjoy your stay!

Te Papa Highlights in Mandarin Tour

Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa •
Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa, 55 Cable Street, Wellington 6011, New Zealand

Visit Te Papa and experience New Zealand in one building at this bold and innovative museum. This national museum is a must-do, with six storeys of cutting-edge interactive exhibitions housed in an architectural wonder of a building. If the phrase "national museum" conjures images of dusty artefacts in glass cases, let Te Papa change that for you. The clever, contemporary, and bicultural approach puts Te Papa in a league of its own and, unlike so many museums, general entry is free. Be sure to also pop in to the Te Papa Store for high-quality souvenirs, books, clothing, jewellery, and treasures.

Wētā Workshop - Tour

Wētā Cave • Weta Cave, 1 Weka Street, Wellington 6022, New Zealand

Wētā Workshop is your gateway to filmmaking creativity. Join our guided tours to learn about the making of movie effects; from armour to weapons, creatures to costumes, make-up, and more! The Workshop is best known for its Academy Award®-winning work on the Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit trilogies, but you certainly will have seen plenty of movies and shows they've had a hand in. Wētā Workshop has a constantly growing list of blockbuster credits to its name, applying its craftsmanship to Blade Runner 2049, Avatar, The Chronicles of Narnia and more. Get up close to fantastical physical effects and authentic props. Test your guide's knowledge. Immerse yourself in our incredible small-group tours and discover how imaginary worlds are brought to life.

From The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit to Avatar and District 9: learn about the making of props, costumes and creatures created for your favourite films. Interact with cool stuff from our creative departments and, if you're lucky, catch an artist at work on our tour stage. The tour departs from the Wētā Cave retail store: a cavern of creativity in its own right, featuring plenty of photo opportunities! Sneak past the giant trolls who guard the front door and don't forget to check out the mini-museum where a particularly hairy pair of Hobbit feet are on display.

Seal Coast Safari - Mandarin Tour

Zozo Travel • Zozo Travel, 50 Cable Street, Wellington 6011, New Zealand

Head to the south coast of Wellington to gaze out over the magnificent Cook Strait and visit the region's only fur seal colony. The journey takes you to the famous "leaning lighthouse" at Karori Rock, where you can get an up-close look at a thriving population of these charming seals - a species that was once endangered but has since made a remarkable recovery. Enjoy tea, coffee, and light refreshments as you relax along this hidden stretch of coastline - a spot rarely visited even by many Wellington locals - and observe the seals as they move among the rocks. Dine at Charley Noble

Charley Noble • Charley Noble, 1 Post Office Square, Wellington 6011, New Zealand

Charley Noble came to life in the Huddart Parker building back in 2013. Paul Hoather had a vision of a smart-casual eatery as the new venture succeeding The Whitehouse restaurant. Since then, and until this day, it is all about the produce and the people. We cook using open woodfire; harnessing the origins of culinary art. For us, quality means organic, fresh produce and products from the best domestic and international suppliers. Genuine service is a reflection of our family culture; we believe that the small things matter.

Wellington Harbour Explorer Tour in Mandarin

East by West Ferries •
East by West Ferries, Queens Wharf, Wellington 6011, New Zealand

East by West is the main harbour transportation service for Wellington. Beyond our commuter services, we provide day trips for visitors, ferrying them across the harbour to the charming seaside township of Days Bay and the captivating Mātiu/Somes Island.

Learn about the history of Te Whanganui-a-Tara/Wellington as the capital city, our local maritime history and natural environment as we take you on a 90 minute cruise around the harbour. Our tour takes in different parts of the harbour depending on conditions on the day. We're the busiest operator on Wellington Harbour at over 9,000 crossings per year, so our team knows where to go to take in all the best sights, regardless of condition.

Explore Wellington with Angela!

Spend the morning exploring Wellington's vibrant city centre, from the local flavours of the Wellington Harbourside Market to the historic Old Bank Arcade and the eclectic shops and cafés of Cuba Street.

Ride the iconic Wellington Cable Car to the top for panoramic views across the city and harbour, then enjoy a scenic walk through the Wellington Botanic Garden, passing the beautiful Rose Garden on your way down towards Parliament for your tour.

If time allows before the tour, visit He Tohu at the National Library of New Zealand to see three of Aotearoa's significant constitutional documents.

Wellington Cable Car

Wellington Cable Car • Wellington Cable Car, 280 Lambton Quay, Wellington 6011, New Zealand

One of Wellington's most popular tourist attractions, the Wellington Cable Car runs from Lambton Quay in the commercial heart of the city and emerges at the top of the Wellington Botanic Garden for a stunning view of the capital. The cable car service has a long history, faithfully serving the city for over 100 years.

Every 10 minutes, the bright red Wellington Cable Car departs from Lambton Quay and makes its way up into the hills of Kelburn. On the five-minute journey upwards, the Cable Car rises 120m over a length of 612m. It travels through three tunnels and over three bridges. From the top, it offers spectacular views of the city below.
