Trip overview

As part of our Start in the South proposition, this six-day familiarisation showcases the remarkable experiences waiting for visitors in New Zealand's south. Beginning on Rakiura Stewart Island, agents will experience unique wildlife, rugged landscapes and warm southern hospitality before travelling through Invercargill and into the spectacular landscapes of Fiordland, including Pātea Doubtful Sound, Piopiotahi Milford Sound and Te Anau. From remote island adventures to some of New Zealand's most iconic natural wonders, this itinerary demonstrates how starting in the south delivers an unforgettable and distinctly different New Zealand experience.
